Five hundred was the pastime for the evening. High score was won by Mr. Hyman Golternek, an ivory calendar. The guest prize was given Miss Helber, a set of lingerie pins. After the game a three-course buffet lunch was served, consisting of deviled crabs, olives, crackers, deviled eggs, celery, asparagus on toast, coffee and pimento sandwiches, coffee cake and ambrosia served in orange baskets. The dining room was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The guests of the evening were Misses Beatrice Goldstucker, Celia Golternek, Nathalia Leibreich, Charlotte Helber and Helen Goldstein. Mrs. Joe Emold of Wichita Falls, Sophia Shoenfield. Messrs. Percy Gill, Hyman, Phil and Leo Golternek and Mike Goldstucker. Miss Goldstein was assisted by her mother in making the evening pass most pleasantly.

THE MIZRACHI MOVEMENT—THE MIZRACHI IN AUSTRIA.

The "Yishub Eretz Israel Organization," which recently joined the Mizrachi, and which has over ten thousand members, with the well known Rabbi Shapiro at its head, has formed a Junior Mizrachi organization, with the purpose of interesting the orthodox Jewish youth of Eastern Europe in the rebuilding and colonization of Palestine.

Two members of the executive of the above-named organization have visited Germany for the purpose of uniting the Chassidish element there and securing their co-operation in the Mizrachi movement.

A MIZRACHI ORGANIZATION IN UKRANIA.

The center for a Mizrachi organization in Ukrania has been formed in the city of Kiev. The new organization is headed by the famous Rabbi Chaim Masasoff, and, under his able leadership, this organization is rapidly winning popularity and many new adherents. Mizrachi societies are being formed in many parts of Ukrania, and are affiliating themselves with the central organization in Kiev.

The central office of the International Junior Mizrachi organization at Antwerp, has issued a manifesto to all young people's Mizrachi organizations, urging them to engage in activity for the rebuilding of Palestine with increased energy and renewed enthusiasm.
